Dear Mr de Klerk

RE: National Heritage Sites in Durbanville, Cape Town

Thank you for query dated 27 September 2017 regarding the location of any National Heritage Sites, as declared under section 27 of the National Heritage Resources Act, Act 25 of 1999 (NHRA), in or around the Durbanville area of Cape Town.

The South African Heritage Resources Agency (SAHRA) can confirm that according to our records currently no heritage resource has been declared as a National Heritage Site under section 27 of the NHRA in the area defined by the map provided to SAHRA, as shown in figure 1.

This letter does not reflect any consideration of any other heritage resource or area protected under the NHRA, other legislation, by-law or planning scheme.

It should be noted that this letter is to be used for the express purpose of information pertaining to the current presence of National Heritage Sites within the area provided for under figures 1 and 2, and does not constitute any approval of, or exoneration from any works, processes, or conditions that may be prescribed by any legislation or relevant body.
